FR. ANTHONY KORIR:

Fr Anthony Korir was ordained in 2006 as a priest with the society of African Missions (SMA). Fr. Anthony Studied in Nairobi Kenya, Cotonou in Benin Republic and Ibadan in Nigeria. He worked as a missionary in Togo West Africa among the Kabye and the Losso people from 2006 to 2012. From 2012 to 2015 he worked at St Joseph Jericho in the Archdiocese of Nairobi in Kenya.

From October 2015 Fr. Korir has been based in Tenafly NJ serving in the development office. Between these years of pastoral experience Fr Korir has seen the growth of the church in different levels and with this growth there have been many challenges especially on the growth of Catholicism and the development of the people. These challenges have made father motivated and take steps to get more involved in helping the faithful. By studying psychology Fr. Korir felt that he will fully serve people in a psycho spiritual way because he believes that we all need to be fully human and fully alive.

He likes teaching and sharing his Catholic faith to others.
