REV. Fr. EUGUENE SQUEO:

Rev. Eugene P. Squeo was ordained a priest in 1971 and served as a member of team ministry at the Catholic Parish of St. Patrick & Assumption/All Saints in Jersey City for 43 years. Rev. Squeo is presently a weekend assistant at St. Joseph’s Parish in Jersey City. He is a member of the Executive Board of Haiti Solidarity Network of the Northeast. He is also a member of First Friends and a volunteer chaplain at the Hudson County Correctional Center. Rev. Squeo is one of the founders of the Mobile Mission for Haiti and of the Hudson County/Brotherhood/Sisterhood Association, an interfaith fellowship. He is an Attorney at Law and Counsel with the law firm of Connell Foley. Rev. Squeo is also an adjunct professor in the Public Policy Program at Saint Peter’s University.

Rev. Eugene Squeo is very passionate about immigrant rights and for decades he has been in the forefront fighting for the rights of immigrants from around the globe, and has watched as the targets of immigration enforcement have changed over time affecting communities like the Irish, Haitians, Spanish and Kenyans among many others who he has helped navigate the legal and multicultural changes they face. As an Attorney, Rev. Squeo sometimes, in order to help the poor navigate the law, works pro bono. He is a champion for the poor.
